

PROBATE

Our team has over 20 years of collective experience in delivering high-quality work in all matters relating to Wills and Estate Administration. The team has particular expertise in high-value estates, Inheritance Tax matters and Estates which consist of Agricultural and Business assets.

We have three members of the team who may work on your matter. Regardless of who works on your matter they will be supervised by Sioned Thomas, Director and Head of Probate and Estate Administration.

Summary of work that may be carried out in a Probate matter:

1. Initial meeting with Personal Representatives.
2. Gathering information from Personal Representatives as to assets and liabilities (assets are the items the deceased owned, liabilities are what the deceased owed to other parties), including bank and building society accounts, investments, shareholdings, insurance policies, property deeds and information, outstanding bills, and contacting relevant companies to inform them of the death.
3. Preparing a breakdown of assets and liabilities as at the date of death.
4. Completing the Inheritance Tax Form IHT205 if it is an excepted estate where no inheritance tax is payable, or a full inheritance tax return IHT400 if the tax is payable and/or does not qualify as an excepted estate.
5. Submitting Inheritance Tax Return to the Inheritance Tax Office and the application for Probate to the Probate Registry.
6. Sending sealed Grant of Probate/Letters of Administration to all companies listed on the assets and liabilities list to arrange closure or transfer of the accounts and other assets to the correct beneficiaries (the people who inherit the Estate under the terms of the Will or under the intestacy laws when there is no Will in place).

Probate or Letters of Administration is a legal document needed to close bank accounts, sell or transfer assets and settle debts after someone has died. These are official documents that grant an individual(s) ("Personal Representatives") permission to access and manage everything owned by a person (known as "the Estate") after they have died.

Law

7. Arranging for Statutory Notices to be placed in the London Gazette and a newspaper local to anywhere the deceased held land. Statutory Notices are an advertisement placed in the papers to inform potential creditors that the Estate is soon going to be distributed and gives creditors an opportunity to claim back money or property owed before the Estate is distributed.
8. Preparation of Estate Accounts for approval by the Personal Representatives.
9. Distributing Estate funds in accordance with the Will or the rules of intestacy (intestacy is where there is no will).

Fees:

We do not charge an uplift fee based on the value of the estate but rather our charges are based on our hourly rates and the time spent on the matter. Hourly rates vary depending on who works on your matter; this is outlined below:

Director	£260 + VAT
Chartered Institute of Legal Executives Graduate Member (GCILEx)	£175 + VAT
Trainee Solicitor	£120 + VAT
Paralegal	£120 + VAT

VAT is currently charged at 20%.

Timescales:

The time taken to deal with estates depends on the complexity of the matter and every situation is different.

Example 1:

1. There is a valid Will
2. There is one residential property
3. There are two bank or building society accounts
4. There are no intangible assets (i.e. an asset that is not physical in nature)
5. There are no foreign assets
6. There are one to three beneficiaries
7. There are no disputes between beneficiaries and division of assets.
8. There is no Inheritance Tax payable and the Personal Representatives do not need to submit a full account to HMRC
9. There are no claims made against the Estate

Law

We anticipate it will take between 20 and 30 hours work at an hourly rate of £260 plus VAT (for work carried out by a Director) or £175 plus VAT (for work carried out by a GCILEx) and the total estimated costs would be £4,000–£6,000 plus VAT (for work undertaken by a Director) and £3,200–£4,800 plus VAT (for work undertaken by a GCILEx).

We estimate that it would take between five and seven months to deal with this type of estate. This timeframe varies for each case and the complexity of the matter, and if there are delays in processing documents at HM Revenue & Customs or with the Probate Registry this could affect the timescales provided.

Example 2:

1. There is a valid Will
2. There is one residential property
3. There are no more than five bank or building society accounts
4. There are no intangible assets (i.e. an asset that is not physical in nature)
5. There are no foreign assets
6. There are no more than six beneficiaries
7. There are no disputes between beneficiaries and division of assets.
8. A full IHT400 inheritance tax form needs to be completed
9. There are no claims made against the Estate

We anticipate this will take between 30 and 40 hours work at an hourly rate of £260 plus VAT (for work carried out by a Director) or £175 plus VAT (for work carried out by a GCILEx) and the total estimated costs would be £6,000–£8,000 plus VAT (for work undertaken by a Director) and £4,800–£6,400 plus VAT (for work undertaken by a GCILEx).

We estimate that it would take between nine and twelve months to deal with this type of estate. This timeframe varies for each case and the complexity of the matter and if there are delays in processing documents at HM Revenue & Customs or with the Probate Registry then this could affect the timescales provided.

The cost and timescale estimates are on the basis that we assume that information will be provided promptly.
